

DIVISIONS / CLASS DESCRIPTIONS

Below are general class descriptions – rules and more detailed explanations for classes can be found in the 4-H Horse & Pony Rule Book (ed. 4-H 266). Classes marked with an dot (●) are not covered in the 4-H Horse & Pony Rule Book. Therefore, you need to read carefully the class descriptions as well as checking the “Class Rules” section and the “Additional Show Rules” section.

SHOWMANSHIP - ●WALK/ YOUTH / OPEN / ●NOVICE DIVISIONS - (Classes open to both English and Western exhibitors)

Judged on the ability of the exhibitor to properly show their horse or pony in-hand according to breed or type with emphasis on alertness, condition and grooming. Conformation of animal does not apply. Explanation of scoring procedures and ring procedures may be found in the 4-H Horse & Pony Rule Book. Grooming will not be done in the ring. All horses or ponies must be shown in halter or bridles appropriate for their breed and may be shown with the lead shank under the chin or over the nose. The show committee will determine patterns. We do not use the standard showmanship pattern in the 4-H Rule Book, all patterns will be posted. Novice pattern will differ from Youth, Junior and Senior patterns.

●LEAD LINE (ENGLISH & WESTERN) DIVISIONS -

(Lead Line (classes #33 & 40 open to riders ages 8 & Under; Unattached LL open to riders age 10 & under. All entries show under either English or Western tack)

Lead Line – Shown both ways of the ring at a walk with lead line connected to the bit on the bridle or connected to a halter under the bridle. An older, experienced handler should be leading. *The handler should not attempt to control lead line mount. Judged on promise of rider with emphasis on correct rider position, rider control over mount, appropriate rider appointments to particular style of riding and suitability of rider to mount. Upon request entries will be lined-up for individual inspection by the judge. Entries may be asked simple questions or asked to demonstrate a simple command.

Unattached Lead Line – Shown both ways of the ring at a walk with NO Lead Line attached between handler and mount. See the judging criteria under “Lead Line” beginning at the asterisk (*).

Unattached Lead Line Trail – No rail work is required. Entries will enter the ring together and form line. One at a time each entry will work 2 trail obstacles. Mandatory obstacle for every trail class will be to demonstrate how to back your horse/pony. Pattern will be posted and copies will be also be available at the entry booth. The second obstacle will be a reasonable type obstacle for this age group. Once the first exhibitor has started their trail pattern we ask that no discussion of the trail pattern between the handler and the exhibitor take place. Shown with NO Lead Line attached. The handler may walk to the obstacle with the exhibitor but from that point the exhibitor must guide his or her mount over the obstacles by themselves. See judging criteria under LL beginning at the asterisk*
